This peaceful and private 3 bedroom villa is nestled on a sloped vineyard covered mountainside, with a large outdoor terrace, infinity pool and truly spectacular views over the Douro Valley and the river Douro.

The air-conditioned traditional stone villa comprises of a double room with ensuite shower room, two twin rooms and another shower room, living room with fireplace and satellite television, indoor/outdoor dining areas and a fully equipped kitchen.

Wake up in the morning to views of the beautiful landscape and tranquil river, as it appears in front of your eyes like a painting. Explore in all directions to take in the views, history and diversity the area has to offer. Ancient terraced vineyards, world-class wines, Baroque architecture, dramatic scenery, friendly locals and good food - The Douro has it all!

Or, simply enjoy the solitude by spending lazy days around the pool and dining al fresco under the stars during summer months. In the cooler months, cozy up to the fireplace with a good read, or just disconnect from the outside world and reconnect with your loved ones.

Portugal's Douro Valley is a great year round destination, with a multitude of different seasonal activities just waiting to be discovered. Whatever time of year brings you here, this will definitely be an experience to remember!
